To the very large number of officials of the Indian Public Services to whom the house of Thresher & Glenny is so familiar as a Strand landmark, the existence of a Branch establishment in the West End may cause surprise. The necessity for this was dictated by the demand of our tailoring department for increased accommodation and the greater convenience of customers

The old traditions of the Strand house are fully maintained, particularly the combination of a thoroughly efficient service and reasonable prices, always associated with our name. In respect of Tailoring the immediate requirements of gentlemen arriving in London on leave can be satisfied with equal facility at either house, but shirts, underwear and general hosiery are supplied only from the Strand.

"The Home Beautifier."

PHYLLIS had intended to give Jim a pleasant surprise that day—and she did! But, it turned out to be mutual, for when she least expected Jim's return there he was—come home for some papers which he had left behind that morning—just when she was laying down the new "Muir" Durrie she had received a little while before. Like Phyllis, there are many discriminating Mem-sahibs who prefer a "Muir" Durrie to a Carpet or any other Floor covering, because they don't gather dust so rapidly—are easily brushed and cleaned and, moreover, wear without losing their beautiful appearance. In stripes, and plain centre with darker colour border.

PURE WOOL

The Burning Test for Wool

PURE WOOL will not burn easily—it chars and cinders, going out almost immediately—mixed with cotton, it consumes rapidly.

MAKE this test yourself—and choose pure wool for your health's sake. That mixture of cotton is dangerous and largely destroys the value of the wool—but you can be sure without testing them that Lalimli materials are ALL WOOL.
